

Name of the Activity : Garba Dance Celebration

Date of Activity : 4th October

Name of the Speaker (If any) NA

Organised by Cultural Club

Number of Participants : 150

Short Writeup

On October 4, 2024, ICFAI University in Raipur hosted a Garba Dance festival to commemorate the joyous anniversary of Navratri. The purpose of this energetic cultural event was to showcase traditional Indian dance styles and promote a sense of community among the faculty and students. The event commenced with a Devi Pooja and brief introduction about the significance of Navratri and Garba. Live music, played by a local band, enhanced the festive mood, drawing many participants to the dance floor. The atmosphere was lively, and joy echoing throughout the venue.

The university's campus, which was beautifully decorated with traditional patterns and vibrantly colored, provided a welcoming ambiance for the celebration. Faculty members and students from different courses took part in the activity. Rewards were given out for the participants who dressed the best and the dance performances. Participants expressed their appreciation for the event, emphasizing the importance of cultural celebrations in fostering community spirit and enhancing the university experience.

Respected Dr. Satya Prakash Dubey, Vice Chancellor, Dr. Manish Upadhaya, Registrar were graced the occasion. The event was successfully organized by Cultural Club of ICFAI under the guidance of Mrs. Nisha Thakur, Cultural Club Coordinator and Dr. S. S Dubey, Student Activity Cell Coordinator.

(please insert high resolution photographs only)

