

Youth Day Celebration

ICFAI University, Raipur remembered the splendid contribution of Swami Vivekanand on his birth anniversary and celebrated the “Youth Day” with full zeal and energy. The program started with Swamiji’s message, “Strength is Life, Weakness is Death. Expansion is Life, Contraction is Death. Love is Life, Hatred is Death.” To instill vigor and energy, the program started with invocation to Goddess of knowledge- Mata Sarasvati. Addressing the gathering, Hon’ble Vice Chancellor highlighted many qualities of Swami Vivekanand and asked students to take inspiration and try to emulate the person who has mesmerized the whole world with his speech in Parliament of Religion in Chicago. He further informed that this speech earned him the title of “an orator by divine rights and undoubtedly the greatest figure at the Parliament” by many American newspapers. Continuing, the Vice Chancellor stated that Swamiji was spiritually inspired though he belonged to an aristocratic family. Dr.S.S.Dubey, faculty from Science and technology Expressing his views on youth day stated that a person is young from its mind and gave example of ‘Padmasri’(2021) SindhutaiSapkal who has nourished and helped orphaned children till her last breath, even at the age of 73 years. This was followed by speech competition where students participated actively and expressed their learnings from the life of Swami Vivekanand. The program was organized by the cultural committee of the University and was anchored by AsthaSidar from BBA-IIInd year. The program concluded with appreciation to students for their active involvement and participation
