

Expert session on "Women Safety and Security: Challenges and Measures"

During the engaging session on "Women Safety and Security: Challenges and Measures" conducted by IPS Ankita Sharma, participants were immersed in a thought-provoking dialogue about the pressing issues women face in today's society.

Participants were not only made aware of the various safety challenges but also empowered with practical measures and strategies to ensure their own security. The collaboration between the Women's Redressal Grievances Cell and IQAC to organize this event showcased a commitment to fostering a safer environment for women.
